Today's reading from St Luke relates to us the story often known as Dives (which is Latin for 'the rich man') and Lazarus (which means 'the one whom God has helped'). It is the story of a rich man without compassion and a beggar. The story is a warning to get things in order before it is too late. Lazarus is accepted into the 'bosom of Abraham' — the founder of God's covenant people. Abraham's bosom was a contemporary Jewish term for the lodging place of the godly dead prior to the expected general resurrection. But it was Lazarus was rescued by God. But for all his expensive clothing (purple cloth and fine linen were top-of-the-line couture) the rich man found himself with a permanent impassable gulf between Sheol and the unending joy of heaven. His money wasn't the problem: his indifference in the face of suffering was. As the theologian Chris Haslam notes, 'Every Jew knew the Old Testament laws commanding the compassionate use of riches, so the rich man had no excuse for his wanton neglect of one whom he saw regularly (vv. 20-21) and could have helped easily.'

Michaelmas – Thursday 29 September 2022 •

For those that like a little glitz and glamour with their religion – and who wouldn't? – the Church Calendar gives us not only the three Magi at Epiphany but also Michaelmas, the feast of St Michael and All Angels. Along with it comes some wonderful hymns that mention the angels. We live a time when on the one hand it's not fashionable to believe in angels, at least as described in the Bible, and on the other the devotees of the 'New Age' write and read literature that is filled with them. Nevertheless, angels are all around us: were it not for them, how on earth would we have managed to survive through the past couple of years. Those who worked as doctors, nurses, ambulance drivers – angels! Those who kept our shops supplied with food and who delivered it to us at home – angels! Those who developed vaccines – angels! Those who taught our children over the internet – angels! Seraphim, Cherubim and Thrones, Dominions, Virtues and Powers, Principalities, Archangels and Angels all around us, if only we would see!
